Come celebrate the Fall season of transformation with your breast cancer "sisters" at Cape Ann in Boston's North Shore. We will gather at Essex Woods on Conomo Point in Essex, MA.

Essex Woods is tucked amidst 16 acres of white pines and oaks, less than a mile from the ocean and surrounded by 250 acres of conservation land providing a natural setting for relaxation, introspection and a sense of well-being.

Woodland and salt marsh trail hikes, expressive/healing arts sessions and relaxing with your "sisters" old and new are some of the adventures awaiting us at the Fall Retreat Weekend.
